Sienna Imaging, Inc. v. LNSI (AAA Arbitration, St. Louis, MO)

Represent Sienna in trial of its claims arising from a corporate asset purchase, based on a breach of Generally Accepted Accounting Standards and non-disclosure involving digital photographic processing systems. Case won. Arbitration damage award entered for client in December 2000.

Tyrone Parker v. NL Industries, Inc., et al. (Circuit Court of Baltimore City, Maryland)

Represent NL Industries in jury trial for products liability resulting from sale of lead paint products in 1950's. This was the first case in the nation to be tried against any of the former manufacturers of lead paint products. Scores of cases have previously been dismissed on motions, and numerous other cases alleging lead paint poisoning or property damage are pending throughout the country. The plaintiff alleged that this current condition of epilepsy results from latent injuries caused when he ingested lead paint in the 1950's. He was treated at the University of Maryland Hospital and diagnosed with lead encephalopathy. He subsequently experienced cognitive delays, difficulties in school, and behavioral problems all as the alleged result of lead poisoning. Case won. The case was tried before a Baltimore City jury from May 30, 2000 to June 12, 2000 before Judge Heller. Complete defense verdict on June 12, 2000.

US West, Inc. v. MediaOne Group, Inc.

Represented MediaOne/AT&T Broadband in a contract dispute over responsibility for telephone consumer class action law suits brought against US West. The dispute was tried to a 3-member arbitration panel. Case won.

Titanium Metals Corporation v. The Boeing Company (District Court, City and County of Denver)

Represented world's largest titanium company in breach of contract litigation over 10-year titanium supply contract.
