

Bartlit Beck Defeats Billion Dollar Claim, Wins Jury Trial for Forstmann Little

Connecticut v. Forstmann Little & Co. (2004)

Fred Bartlit and Hamilton Hill defeated a damages claim against the investment firm Forstmann Little in this highly watched trial in which the Treasurer of the State of Connecticut sought damages for investment losses to the state pension fund. After a five-week trial, although the jury found breaches of fiduciary duties, the jury awarded no damages as the state knew of the investments at issue and had approved of them at the time.
