

Recruiting

"One of the three best law firms in America."

Michael Roster, former General Counsel of Stanford University

Bartlit Beck is among the most selective law firms in the country, hiring only a few highly qualified candidates each year.

Check out our roster of lawyers to see what we mean, and if you are interested in joining Bartlit Beck, please contact our Hiring Partner, Mark Ferguson.

Please note that we do not offer a "summer program." We do not hire second year summer associates at all, but occasionally hire one or two exceptional third year students for the summer between graduation and a Federal judicial clerkship.
