

AMY GORE

ASSOCIATE

54 West Hubbard Street, Chicago, IL 60654 | 312.494.4462 | amy.gore@bartlitbeck.com

Amy Gore has worked on high-stakes complex commercial cases including nationwide class actions, MDLs, and multistate litigation. She has represented clients in a variety of disputes including trade secret, patent, product liability, and consumer fraud actions. Amy also maintains a robust pro bono practice, having assisted clients in habeas corpus and asylum application proceedings.

Amy joined Bartlit Beck after two years as a litigation associate at Latham & Watkins. She graduated from the University of Michigan Law School where, as President of LAW Breaks, she coordinated legal volunteer opportunities for over 50 law students – helping to earn LAW Breaks the law school’s Outstanding Pro Bono Project Award.

EDUCATION & HONORS

University of Michigan, 2018, J.D., magna cum laude

Certificates of Merit: Torts, International Intellectual Property

Newcastle University, 2013, B.A., 1st Class Hons

Award for Excellence in Spanish

Distinction in Spoken French

ADMISSIONS

Illinois

United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois

CURRENT REPRESENTATIONS

Align Technology, Inc. v. 3Shape A/S and 3Shape Inc. (D. Del.)

Trial counsel for plaintiff Align Technology (maker of the popular Invisalign system) in action alleging 3Shape’s infringement of certain Align patents that claim technology for monitoring patient progress and converting three-dimensional digital models of teeth into physical models.