

BARTLIT BECK PREVAILS FOR SIKORSKY IN TRIAL AGAINST DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

03.2013

Bartlit Beck partners Jeff Hall and Kate Swift and co-counsel Karen Manos of Gibson Dunn won a trial for Sikorsky in the Court of Federal Claims. The government sought $80 million plus interest on its claim that Sikorsky had overcharged the government for aircraft and parts by allocating material overhead costs in violation of cost accounting standards during 1999-2005. After a one-week trial, post-trial briefing, and closing arguments, on March 22, 2013 Judge Charles F. Lettow issued an opinion rejecting the government's claim in its entirety and entered judgment for Sikorsky.
