ABBY MOLLEN WINS PATENT CASE FOR AMAZON SUBSIDIARY ZAPPOS

11.2013

Abby Mollen won a judgment of invalidity in a patent case brought against online retailer Zappos in the District of Delaware. The plaintiff, UbiComm, had asserted this patent against at least fifty defendants in e-commerce and other fields. Zappos moved to dismiss the complaint on the grounds that UbiComm's claims are to an unpatentable abstract idea. Abby Mollen argued the motion for Zappos.
