

BARTLIT BECK PARTNERS NAMED TO IAM PATENT 1000

06.2014

Bartlit Beck partners Phil Beck and Chris Lind were recognized this week as top patent litigators when they were named to the Intellectual Asset Managers (“IAM”) Patent 1000, a list of the world’s leading patent practitioners. Bartlit Beck was recognized as a leading patent litigation firm.

The IAM Patent 1000 is the definitive directory exclusively dedicated to identifying the world’s leading patent services providers. According to IAM, the research used to compile the list was conducted over several months by a team of full-time analysts, and involved more than 1,500 interviews with patent specialists across the globe.

IAM wrote:

Bet-the-company trials are the order of the day at Bartlit Beck Herman Palenchar & Scott, which boasts sophisticated commercial litigation expertise. Its patent infringement credentials are increasingly noted by market sources, who extol its “lights-out smart practitioners”. “Cream of the crop” is Chris Lind, a “down-to-earth lawyer who engenders fierce loyalty in clients”. “He can get up to speed on any area of technology easily, is a great writer and is quick on his feet at trial.” Philip Beck maintains a broad business litigation practice: “He can try any case and win.”
