CASES TRIED OR OTHERWISE TAKEN TO JUDGMENT

Meso Scale Diagnostics, LLC v. Roche Diagnostics Corporation (D. Del. 2019)

Trial counsel in a patent infringement case for Meso Scale Diagnostics, LLC. After a six-day trial and fewer than two hours of deliberation, the jury returned a verdict finding that the Defendant Roche Diagnostics had willfully infringed all of the asserted patents and awarding Meso Scale damages of $137,250,000.

Luckett v. Dart (N.D. Ill. 2018)

Trial counsel for Cook County Sheriff Thomas Dart in a federal jury trial concerning an Americans with Disabilities Act claim involving the Cook County Jail. Conducted voir dire, cross-examined the plaintiff, and directed the examination of a key defense witness. After a four-day trial, the jury returned a complete defense verdict for Sheriff Dart.

UroPep v. Eli Lilly (E.D. Tex. 2016-2017)

Trial and appellate counsel for UroPep, securing a plaintiff verdict in a patent infringement jury trial concerning Eli Lilly's sales of Cialis to treat benign prostatic hyperplasia (BPH). The jury determined Eli Lilly infringed UroPep's patent, rejected all of Eli Lilly's invalidity defenses, and awarded $20 million in damages.

A Pty, Ltd. v. Amazon.com, Inc. (W.D. Tex. 2015-2016)

Trial and appellate counsel for Amazon in patent infringement lawsuit. Obtained judgment of invalidity under 35 U.S.C. § 101. Plaintiff voluntarily withdrew appeal after Amazon filed its response brief.

ICU Medical v. RyMed Technologies (D. Del., 2009-2013)

Trial counsel for RyMed in patent lawsuit in two trials in Delaware. The first trial had mixed results, and an inconsistent verdict on a key infringement issue. In the second trial, the jury found in favor of RyMed. Immediately following the second trial, participated in a bench trial on prosecution history estoppel. Directed expert witness at bench trial. Obtained favorable ruling on prosecution history estoppel.

Pioneer Hi-Bred International v. Agrigenetics, Inc. (S.D. Ind., 2009-2011)

Trial counsel for Pioneer in a dispute with Agrigenetics and its parent Dow AgroSciences concerning the marketing of Pioneer seed genetics through particular distribution channels. Case settled during trial after Pioneer prevailed on a Daubert challenge to plaintiffs' damages expert, and after openings and cross-examination of plaintiffs' first witness.

ICE Corporation v. Hamilton Sundstrand Corporation et al. (10th Cir., 2010-2011)

Counsel for Hamilton Sundstrand and Ratier-Figeac in appeal of adverse jury verdict on a misappropriation of trade secrets claim under Kansas law. Successfully obtained reversal of $9 million punitive damages award. Case settled favorably after remand.
