
ASHA SPENCER NAMED 2017 LEADERSHIP GREATER CHICAGO FELLOW

06.29.2016

Leadership Greater Chicago (LGC) announced on June 17, 2016 that Asha Spencer was among the 2017 Class of LGC Fellows. This select group of 38 accomplished and diverse individuals represents a cross-section of professionals from Chicago's corporate, nonprofit, government, and education sectors. They share the goal of effecting real change in the community. The Fellows will engage in a 10-month program where they will be immersed in key socioeconomic issues facing our city and the region, including education, economic development, healthcare, housing and infrastructure, criminal justice, and race.

Fellows selected for Chicago's premiere program for developing civic leaders have demonstrated remarkable professional achievement early in their careers, a commitment to their community, and the potential to influence effective change.
