

CATHERINE MCPHERSON TO BE A PANELIST AT ILTACON

08.25.2016

ILTACON is a four-day educational conference that draws on the experience and success of professionals employing ever-changing technology within law firms and legal departments. Catherine McPherson will be a speaker at the session entitled "Production to Trial: The Tools We Use and the Tools We Need" on August 31, 2016. She'll be partnering with Clare Foley, Opus2 Magnum software VP, to "explore a new generation of case management and trial preparation software integrated into real-life workflows and case management tactics." The other panelist pairs will be Perkins Coie/Allegory and Pryor Cashman/Everchron.
