

BARTLIT BECK LAWYERS SELECTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LEADERSHIP COUNCIL ON LEGAL DIVERSITY'S (LCLD) 2022 FELLOW AND PATHFINDER PROGRAMS

02.17.2022

Bartlit Beck is pleased to announce that Nico Martinez and Katherine Rhoades will participate in LCLD's 2022 leadership development programs.

Nico has been named a member of the 2022 class of Fellows, an intensive, yearlong professional development program that connects high-potential attorneys with leading general counsel and managing partners, and their peers for mentoring and career guidance. Within their organizations, Fellows have distinguished themselves from others by being deeply engaged, indispensable to key clients and teams, invested in attorney mentoring and professional development, and on a trajectory towards leadership positions.

Katherine has been selected for membership in the 2022 Pathfinder Program, a seven-month professional program designed to train high-performing, early-career attorneys on foundational leadership and relationship-building. They have been identified as emerging leaders who have distinguished—or have the potential to distinguish—themselves within their organizations.

The Leadership Council on Legal Diversity is an organization of more than 400 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners—the leadership of the profession—who have pledged themselves, through our Leaders at the Front initiative and other means, to creating a truly diverse U.S. legal profession.
