

BARTLIT BECK PARTNERS NAMED TO IAM PATENT 1000

07.07.2022

Intellectual Asset Management (IAM) named Bartlit Beck partners Chris Lind, Steven Derringer and J. Scott McBride to its 2022 edition of the "IAM Patent 1000." The annual list shines a spotlight on the firms and individuals deemed outstanding in the area of patent law.

IAM wrote:

"Bartlit Beck is a potent trial outfit with a wide-ranging litigation practice. Highly experienced in patent litigation, it is called on to handle high-exposure, technically complex cases in which its ability to break down the science and construct compelling narratives around it is incredibly impactful. Chris Lind and Steven Derringer litigate many kinds of cases, not just intellectual property, and have a deep strategic playbook to draw on. J. Scott McBride focuses on pharmaceutical patent litigation and has served as lead trial counsel to a host of major pharmaceutical companies."
